● What an interesting meeting last week .We heard from Melanie Sjoberg who is President of the Friends of the Heysen Trail.

● The Heysen Trail is 1200 Km long and goes from Cape Jervis to Blinman in the Flinders Ranges.

● It is estimated that if you walked it from start to finish it would take 60 days at approx. 20km/ day. Along the trail there is no e-mail or phone access.

The trail was named after Sir Hans Heysen and 60% of it is on private property access to which was negotiated by Terry Lavender.

It is an Adventure trail which covers history, geology and agriculture of the areas it passes through.as well as walkers learn about the Indigenous people who were in the area.

Small towns along the trail benefit from hikers spending money for provisions in the stores.

The Friends of the Heysen Trail has 1200 members and has a Council, Committees and runs an office 5 days a week.

Melanie distributed copies of the Friends magazine "trail Walker" which has details of their activities and a map of the Trail.

A very good evening from a person who is very involved in the Friends group.

Dear Graham & team,

What an exceptionally beautiful evening we had for our school's first Twilight Fair on Tuesday 2nd April. The students manned a vast array of stalls and we enjoyed the talents of our school choir and strings ensemble whilst also being entertained by local dance companies and the Victor City Band. The aim of the night was to raise funds for an upgrade of play equipment and with the help of our very generous sponsors and a great turn out, we were able to exceed our target amount.

This letter is to acknowledge and genuinely thank you for your contribution of the Rotary BBQ trailer and volunteers for the fair. Your efforts and time are greatly appreciated! We acknowledge that we have now learnt a lot about what could be done better, we will endeavor to have a convenor for this area in the future. I believe many of the school volunteers that did help serve looked to you for your guidance and again we appreciate that you were able to provide it.

It was lovely to meet you and I'm grateful for your willingness to share information that helped us anticipate what would be required for the night. I hope you all had a nice evening and can pass on how truly grateful we are for such a supportive and hard working group of volunteers.

Again, a huge thank you.

Sincerely,

Jacqui Pontifex
